Honourable Chief Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen,

Once again we meet to honour and applause the prize winners of the academic year 2001-2002. They are rewarded for their honesty, hard work and discipline.

This day has become more joyful with the presence of Mr. Ayaz Badshah, one of the honest, decent, disciplined, hardworking and generous students that I have taught. Ayaz, I am glad that you have graced this occasion with your presence, rescheduling your appointments of the day and getting up early to be with us. We all know that the editors of dailies sleep in the mornings and work hard at nights. Sir, you have really honoured us by saying 'yes' to our invitation. Honour and respect for the parents and the teachers are on the decline among us Asians. We are losing the sense of moral values. Chief editors like you, Ayaz, can do a lot to rekindle the decaying values of our society.

Ayaz joined St. Mary's in Class Prep and passed Matric in the year 1983. He pursued his studies further and obtained a bachelor's degree in Economics from Liester University in England. On his return to Pakistan, he took charge of the Mashriq Group of newspapers. He took part in co-curricular activities, especially in dramas. I am sure that Ayaz has not forgotten as to how we built up St. Mary's with contribution from the students as well as the parents. That generosity is hard to find these days. Instead, everyone expects the school to provide everything free of cost, but they are least concerned about extending a helping hand, financially.

Sir, you have performed the opening ceremony of the computer laboratory. It is a great honour for us. You are the only person so far who has ceremonially opened a part of this school. We are glad to say that all furnishing, wiring and painting was done by our own junior staff. The net working cost us a colossal amount. The contribution from the parents was a meagre amount of Rs. 3047/- We need 12 more computers and we can only pray to God to make people more contributing than receiving.

We always guide our teachers for honesty and sincerity. We take steps to discontinue services of those members of the staff who take undue advantage of their position to meet their selfish motives. We consider honesty, truthfulness and hard work as the most important traits of one's character. This is exactly what we are trying to inculcate in our students. This year few of our students joined other schools, in order to obtain better results by unfair means. It is disappointing to see even few of the parents advocating cheating. I can proudly claim that all of our present members of the staff strive to be honest in their duties. This way they set themselves as role models for their students.

I am glad to announce that we had a large number of applicants for admissions to St. Francis' during this Academic year. This reflects on the rising standards and credibility of the Institution. However, as I had told you last year, I was very particular in not to compromise on the standard we have set and I accepted only 65.76 % of all the applicants.

Our school has not yet overcome the financial burden. But we do continue to provide whatever facilities we can to make the environment homely. The classrooms are airy and comfortable. They need curtains and gas heaters. It is encouraging to note that some of the senior students, on their own, have set up class funds to help the administration to meet the above needs. We have seven water coolers in the school and we need to install more. All these needs and many more will be carried out with the passage of time. Our chief guest knows, what I say, is what I mean to plan and carry out.

Once again Ayaz, we thank you sincerely for being with us today. Fight and write for Honesty. Your papers are one of the top most publications in Pakistan and the most widely circulated newspapers in the N.W.F.P. We pray for the success of your mission as a journalist.

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you very much for taking time to be with us today. Hope you will enjoy the performance of your children.
